STATE OF MAINE.

OFFICE OF SECRETARY OF STATE, Augusta, March 1, 1866.

CIRCULAR.

THE Act of the 23d of February last, providing pensions for certain classes of disabled soldiers and the widows and minor children of those deceased) of the War of 1861, will necessa ily impose upon the State Department duties somewhat analagous to those of the Pension Bureau at Washington, though of a comparatively limited character. Considerable time will therefore be required by the Council, in whom is vested the supervision of this new department of business, in determining the mode of procedure and preparing the requisite blanks thereto.

Early in the ensuing May session of that Honorable body, forms and regulations, with a copy of the law, will be promulgated.

Applicants under this statute, who are, or may be, in the receipt of a pension from the United States Government, will not require the assistance of agents or attorneys in preparing or presenting their claims for the State pension.

MUTTY'S

Friction Feed Roller,

FOR CIRCULAR SAWS.

PATENTED JANUARY 23d, 1866.

THIS INVENTION is applicable to all Circular Saws provided with stationary tables and used for re-sawing lumber.

It reduces the labor of sawing one half, and fifty per cent. more lumber can be sawed with, than without its use. It is applied without change of existing machinery; is not liable to get out of repair, and not expensive to apply.

It has been in practical use on the Penobscot river for one year, where the above facts have been fully and satisfactorily demonstrated, as is shown by the certificates of master mill-men, machinists, owners and operators of mills appended hereto.

The undersigned have for the past season witnessed the practical use of MUTTY'S FEED ROLLER in re-sawing lumber, and we cheerfully recommend it as a practical, economical, and labor saving invention, destined to come into general use in all cases where lumber is re-sawed upon stationary tables. We are fully satisfied from our own observation that the saving effected, and extra amount cut, by its use, is fully as large as the estimate above given.

Despatches to the Evening Times.

Later from Europe---A War between Prussia and Austria almost Inevitable.

NEW YORK, April 9.

Special Washington despatches state that a bill providing for enforcement of the confiscation laws has passed the Senate.

The attempt to raise the duties on imports fifty per cent. for ninety days, has been tabled by a decided vote.

LOUISVILLE, Apr. 9.

Under orders from Gen. Thomas, that all colored troops in Kentucky be disbanded, the 12th heavy artillery and 119th colored infantry have been mustered out of service.

NEW YORK, April 10.

A public meeting was held last evening under the auspices of the Ladies' Methodist Centenary Association. Chief Justice Chase presided, and Bishops James and Simpson delivered addresses. The Chief Justice alluded to the passage of the Civil Rights Bill and claimed that the next step should be to give the ballot to the emancipated slaves.

The excitement over the confederation resolutions still continues in New Brunswick. The anti-confederation minority of the upper House have sent in a protest against the address of the Queen favoring confederation The government members were in consultation all day yesterday, and it is supposed that they will resign.

Special despatches from Washington state that Gens. Jas. B. Steadman and Joseph B. Fullerton start to-morrow upon an important government mission to the South. They will visit all the States, and probably extend their investigations to the banks of the Rio Grande.

TORONTO, April 10.

Michael Murphy, President of the Hibernian Society, and five others, were arrested at Cornwall on their way to Portland, on suspicion of being connected with the Fenian movements. Arms and ammunition were found. They were brought before a magistrate to-day.

WASHINGTON, April 10.

The President has proclaimed a treaty with the Winnebago Indians, who convey to the government their reservation in Dacotah Territory, and accept land in Nebraska, the government agreeing to subsist them in their new home one year, and furnish all the necessaries to domestic comforts.

The President has approved the deficiency appropriation bill. Among its items are those for the expenses of President Lincoln's funeral; for the purchase of Ford's Theatre the scene of the assassination; and for the re-establishment of the light-houses on the Southern coast.

PORTLAND, Me., April 10.

The steamship Belgian, from Liverpool 29th via Londonderry 30th, arrived this morning.

The Dondon Times of the 30th says---

There is too much reason to fear that the peace of Europe is about to be broken by one of the least just and least necessary wars of modern times.

The Times heartily trusts England may hold aloof. Half a dozen war vessels were preparing for sea at Plymouth, and it is reported that they were to go to the St. Lawrence.

The language of the Prussian press, by evident dictation of the government, is warlike, and great military preparations are being made throughout the kingdom.

In Austria the government is also taking measures in anticipation of the coming struggle. Austria is said to have determined to put an end to the provisional state of affairs in the Duchies, and if necessary, will propose that the question be referred to an European Congress.

The Independence Belge of the 29th, has news that the King of Prussia has given his consent to certain military arrangements, which, though only preliminary, indicate that a war is almost inevitable.

There are indications of loyalty among Southerners which occasionally come to us, full of consolation and hope. Gen. Hawley of Connecticut has received a letter from a Southern slaveholder, who had been three years in the Southern army, congratulating him on his election. The General's election he regarded as "a triumph of constitutional nationality and universal freedom over national partizanship." "Twelve months," he goes on to say, "of Freedmen's Bureau will give you success to the National party. I am for the Nation, and I find that the Secessionists are with the Democrats of the North, and the Copperheads with the Democrats. I see that the men who attempted to destroy the country are not with you, therefore I conclude that your party desires to preserve it." So long as there are ten men in the South who feel as this writer, we have hope of its ultimate salvation.---[Tribune.

A DUEL IN MISSISSIPPI. A letter from Vicksburg, Miss., dated March 26, gives the following account of a duel, in which an army officer from Vermont was killed by an ex-rebel officer:

As I was going to my gin-house last Saturday morning, one of my servants reported that some white men were fighting in the woods; I repaired to the spot and saw six men, two of whom were fighting with swords. As I approached, the tallest of the two struck the other across the face with the blade, then parried and ran him through.---He fell, exclaiming, "Gentlemen, I am killed," expiring in a few moments. The victor quietly wiped the blood from his sword with his handkerchief. Two of the men said, "Colonel, you have finished that Yankee; he is dead; come, let us mount and go; these Yankees will look after their dead friend." A colored boy came with horses. The victor said, "Gentlemen, my friends are in haste to go; is there anything I can do for you? I hope you consider this matter settled honorably?" The party rode off. I learned from an attending physician that the affray arose from a political quarrel. The victor was an officer in the rebel army, named Col McIver; the slain, Major Tomlins, of Vermont, late of the U. S. A. Vols. This is only one of the many duels occurring here. If a Northern man comes South he must prepare to fight---he will have many opportunities.

A SURPRISE PARTY IN THE FOURTH WARD. Some months ago, Gov. Fenton, not having the fear of anybody, North or South, before his eyes, without regard to the Mosaic dispensation, in contradistinction to party precedents, appointed a man, as Notary Public in the Fourth Ward entirely on his merits. The man, whose name is Wm. P. Powell, and whose color is unconstitutional, is well-educated, of unblemished character, well known to and esteemed by the public of that Ward, notwithstanding his complexion, and the Governor gave him his commission in consideration of the former qualities and without allowing that the latter was a disqualification. The result has justified his judgment. Mr Powell has as much business as he wants to do in the notarial line, nobody yet, having refused to take the oath administered to him from a black man's lips, or declined to accept the notarial seal from a black man's hand. Yes, there was one single instance. One applicant stared in astonishment when brought face to face with the black notary, and finding, like the swearing deacon when his load of hay upset, that there was no oath sufficient for the occasion, simply turned and ran away as though another---the proverbial like one---was after him. He---we mean the frightened man---has never been seen in the ward since.

Mr Powell's home is in Dover street, and at the corner of Dover and Water are the rooms of a Temperance Society. Last evening four young men called on him, and saying that the Rooms, where they wanted to go to take the Pledge, were shut up, asked that he would administer an "iron-clad" oath of Total Abstinence as strong as he could "fix" it. It was rather out of the usual line of business, but the young men---all white and, we should judge by their names, all Irish---being very much in earnest, Mr Powell was equal to the occasion, and immediately drew up and administered the following "iron-clad":

"State of New York, City and County of New York, April 6, 1866. We * * * * * do solemnly swear, in the presence of God and these witnesses, that we will not drink, taste or handle; neither (will) we traffic, or encourage any person in the use of any kind of intoxicating liquors, wines or lager beer, from and after this date, for the period of six month, ending the 5th of October, 1866.

"And we do hereby subscribe our hand and seal the day and year above written.

"Sworn to and subscribed before me this 6th day of April, A. D., 1866.

WM P. POWELL, Notary Public."

All of which was duly signed, sealed and witnessed, and the young men went their way rejoicing, fully pursuaded that they had done a good thing, found a new way of doing it, and determined when the six months were up and the pledge maintained, they would take it forever. To all which there are two morals. That Temperance Rooms should keep open shop; and that a black notary may be the "connecting link" in a white man's search after sobriety, notwithstanding the veto of the Civil Rights bill, and the imminent danger of a "war of races."---[Tribune.

DEATH OF A SWINDLER. A New York correspondent of the Cincinnati Commercial recalls some facts in the life of Philip Burrows, who lately died in a town in Italy.---Burrows was once a prominent lawyer in New York. The Van Rensselaers, A. T. Stewart and others were among his clients. When the Rensselaers sold to Mr. Stewart the Metropolitan Hotel, Burrows acted as agent for both parties, and delivering the deed to Mr. Stewart, received the purchase money, amounting to half a million of dollars. The custody of this sum was too much for his honesty, and, gathering up what other funds he could, he fled to Europe with the whole amount, taking refuge in Tuscany. One or two of his victims followed him up, but he turned the tables on them and compelled them to pay heavy costs. This occurred fifteen or twenty years ago, and in the meanwhile Burrows has been living in Italy on the results of his ill-gotten treasure.

Mr. Morgan, the Democratic nominee for Representative in Meriden, Conn., regarded English's calling and election as so sure that he agreed to publicly black the boots of a colored barber, named Hodge, if the Republicans won. After the election Mr. Morgan kept his word and his temper, and made a little speech, saying, "Gentlemen, it is as I told you it would be; I told you if Mr. Hawley was elected, you would see white men polishing black men's boot, and if Mr. English was elected you would see black men blacking white men's boots." Three cheers were thereupon given to Mr. Morgan for having faithfully performed his duty, and three more were given for Governor Hawley. The box and blacking brush were sold on the spot for three dollars.

A Washington letter says:---"A speculator well-known in this city as having made large purchases of arms, munitions, etc., sold among other articles to the Fenian leader, Gen. Sweeney, a week ago last Wednesday, twenty thousand army revolvers and seventeen thousand forage caps. It is well known here that a very large proportion of the military material sold by the War Department since the rebellion closed has been purchased by one or the other of the Fenian executives."

Taxation of National Bank Stock.

We publish by request the following extract from the decision of the United States Supreme Court made March 26, with regard to the right of States to tax the shares of the National banks. Mr. Justice Nelson delivered the opinion of the court. The title of the cause was Adam Van Allen and others, stockholders of the First National Bank of Albany, vs. Michael A. Nolan and others, Board of Assessors of the City of Albany. The opinion is as follows:

This is a writ of error to the Court of Appeals of the State of New York. The case presented is this: The plaintiffs in error are stockholders in the First National Bank in the City of Albany, and the defendants constitute the Board of Assessors of taxes in the same city. The whole of the capital stock of the bank consisted of stocks and bonds issued by the United States under various acts of Congress; and it was insisted before the Board that the shares of the bank, held by the plaintiffs as stockholders were not subject to assessment and taxation under State authority, which position was denied by the Board. And the assessment was made and the tax imposed. The case was carried to the Supreme Court of the State, and thence to the Court of Appeals, which court affirmed the authority of the Board of Assessors to levy the tax. The case is now before us under the twenty-fifth section of the Judiciary Act.

The decree of the Court of Appeals must be reversed on the ground that the Enabling Act of the State, of March 9, 1865, does not conform to the limitations prescribed by the act of Congress, passed June 3, 1864, organizing the national banks and providing for their taxation. The defect is this: One of the limitations in the act of Congress is that "the tax so imposed under the laws of any State upon the shares in any of the associations authorized by this act shall not exceed the rate imposed upon the shares in any of the banks authorized under the authority of the State where such association is located." The Enabling Act of the State contains no such limitation; the banks of the State are taxed upon their capital, and although the act provides that the tax on shares of the national banks shall not exceed the par value, yet inasmuch as the capital of the State banks may consist of the bonds of the United States which are exempt from State taxation it is easy to see that a tax on the capital is not an equivalent for the tax on the shares of the stockholders. This is but an unimportant question, however, as the defect may be readily remedied by the State Legislature. The main and important question involved, and the one which has been argued at great length and with ability, is whether the State possesses the power to tax the shares of the national banks in the hands of the stockholders, whose capital is wholly invested in stocks and bonds of the United States. The court are of opinion that this power is possessed by the State, and that it is due to the several cases that have been so fully and satisfactorily argued before us at this term, as well as to the public interests involved, that the question should be finally disposed of; and we shall proceed therefore to state as briefly as practicable the grounds and reasons that have led to their judgment in the case.

The first act providing for the organization of these national banks, passed Feb. 25, 1863, contained no provision concerning State taxation of these shares, but Congress reserved the right by the last section at any time to amend, alter, or repeal the act. The present act of 1864 is a re-enactment of the prior statute, with some material amendments, of which the section concerning State taxation is one.

The interest of the shareholder entitles him to participate in the net profits earned by the bank in the employment of its capital during the existence of its charter, in proportion to the number of his shares, and upon its dissolution or termination, to his proportion of the property that may remain of the corporation after the payment of its debts. This is a distinct, independent interest or property held by the shareholder, like any other property that may belong to him. It is the interest which the act of Congress has left subject to taxation by the States with the limitations prescribed.

It has been argued that the term used here means only the interest of the shareholder as representing the portion of the capital, if any, not invested in the bonds of the government, and that the State assessors must institute an inquiry into the investment of the capital of the bank and ascertain what portion is invested in these bonds, and make a discrimination in the assessment of the shares; but this is an interpolation, pure and simple, into the act of Congress. If that body had intended any such discrimination, it would have been natural and an easy matter to have said so. Certainly so great and important a change in the use of this term, if so intended, would not have been left to judicial construction.

Upon the whole, after the maturest consideration, we have been able to give to the act we are satisfied that the States possess the power to tax the whole of the interest of the shareholders in the shares held by them in these associations, within the limit prescribed by the act authorizing their organization.

The Savannah Republican, writing about the Civil Rights bill before the President vetoed it, says:

In other words, there shall no longer be be one set of laws for the government of one class of citizens, and another set for another class. So far as the natural distinctions enumerated are concerned, that which is good for one shall be good for all. What will be the action of the President in regard to it remains to be seen. In the meantime we can but remember that he was among the first to address the freedmen as fellow-citizens of the United States, and we would be the last to suppose he considered them so only in empty name. If they are citizens, they are deserving of these rights, which cannot in any manner be construed to include the political privilege of suffrage. In our opinion, whatever may be the feeling now against the measure—though aware that the education of the great majority will leave them no alternative but to entertain the most bitter hostility towards it, the day will come when it will be looked on with favor by all—be distasteful to none.

The "Johnson meeting" at Washington on Thursday evening,

"Resolved, That we are opposed to any attempt on the part of the General Government to force universal suffrage upon the people of any State or Territory, against the known will of the loyal people thereof, as unconstitutional, impolitic and unjust."

Very well: let us settle the matter on that basis. Let all "the loyal people" of each State lately in revolt, and none others, vote on the question, and we agree to abide their decision. What say you?

By the way gentlemen, didn't most of you think it "unconstitutional, impolitic and unjust," to force Emancipation on the people of the South? Will you explain?—[Tribune.

The Advertiser's leading article Thursday morning is a paraphrase of Mr. Nasby's last sermon. "Our Democratic noospapers," says the Rev. Petroleum, "are supportin Andrew Johnson. They claim that his policy is our policy, that he is ourn and we are his. They are singing hosanners to him—at his every act they exclaim hallelooiey in korus. What is it all about? In what particular has Andrew Johnson showed himself to be a Dimokrat? In the name uv Dimocricy let me ask where are the offices?—Press

RUSSIAN EMANCIPATION. The Russian Government is said to be carrying out its policy of emancipation among the Polish peasantry, who if not actually serfs, have yet had few rights to be respected by the aristocratic and revolutionary classes. The government has begun to furnish the peasants title deeds to their allotment of lands, which proceeding will have the effect to make friends at least of this class.

—We learn from the Advertiser that Rev. Dr. Spaulding, of the Whitefield Church, Massachusetts, has had a call from the Central Church in Portland, to become their pastor, at $2,500 per annum, with a parsonage.

—We understand that the mills at Oldtown will commence sawing to-morrow.

—The arrival here of 500 stand of arms and equipments by the last New York boat, taken in connection with the mysterious advent of a hundred or so stalwart Irishmen from abroad yesterday, would give Bennett of the New York World material for a "first class sensation." We shall maintain our neutrality inviolate.—[Portland Star.

—Some years ago a New York lawyer named Burrows acted as agent for the Van Rensaelers when they sold the Metropolitan Hotel to Mr. Stewart. Burrows received the purchase money, $500,000, and decamped to Italy where extraditions are unknown.—After many years splendid living on his plunder he recently died in Tuscany.

—The Boston Post mentions it as a remarkable fact, that during the dozen years or more of the publication of the Albany Statesman, the Evening Journal never by the slightest allusion to the paper or its editor, recognized the existence of its rival.

—An English paper says the trichinæ cannot live at the temperature of boiling water, so that thorough cooking, by boiling, of infected pork, is all that is required to render it harmless. This reminds the Hartford Press of the old lady's advice: "Alwuz eat your chesnuts biled, my son. Biled worms don't never hurt nobody."

—No girl ever made a happy union by flirtation; because no man capable of making a woman permanently happy, was ever attracted by that which is disgusting to persons of intelligence and refinement.

Flirtation, whether seriously or lightly considered, is injurious to a woman as well as exceedingly unbecoming in her. It is a broad, unblushing confession, which the individual makes of her desire to attract the notice of men.

—Never quit your hopes. Hope is often better than enjoyment. Hope is often the cause as well as the effect of youth. It is certainly a very pleasant and healthy passion. A hopeless person is deserted by himself; and he who forsakes himself is soon forsaken by friends and fortune!

—"Jake, did you carry that umbrella home that I borrowed yesterday?" asked a father of his son. "No, father, you have often told me to lay up something for a rainy day, and as I thought it would rain soon, I laid up the umbella."

NEW YORK, April 10.

A special despatch to the Herald from Eastport, Me., says:

A British gunboat has gone to Saint Andrews.

Prominent Fenians, and the British Consul and U S Marshal are at the hotel.

Communication between St. John and the western towns was destroyed last night by the Fenians.

A Fenian convention is in session.

There is bad feeling on both sides of the line.

Small arms and rockets are continually being fired, and there is a perfect panic.

The British gunboats are reported in the fog.

A Fenian vessel with howitzers and other arms was prevented from leaving at midnight last night by the customs officers.

A Fredericton (New Brunswick) despatch to the Herald says—

The British authorities are placing the frontier in a defensive state. Two companies of volunteers have left St. Andrews.

The Lower House met this afternoon, and it was announced that the members of the Government had resigned.

Mr Wilmot's Opposition has been appointed by the Governor to form a new government.

A Toronto special despatch says—

A general search is making for treasonable papers and arms.

Eight men have been arrested at Cornwall.

WASHINGTON, April 10.

The Secretary of War, in a letter dated Jan 4, says:

Jeff Davis has not been arraigned upon an indictment or formal charge of crime, but has been indicted for the crime of treason by the Grand Jury of the District of Columbia, which indictment is now pending in the Supreme Court of said District; he is also charged with inciting the assassination of Lincoln, and with the murder of Union prisoners of war by starvation, and other barbarous and cruel treatment towards them. The President, deeming it expedient that Jefferson Davis should first be put upon his trial before a competent court and jury, for the crime of treason, he was advised by the law officer of the Government that the most proper place for such trial was in the State of Virginia. That State is within the judicial circuit assigned to the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, who has held no court there since the apprehension of Mr. Davis, and who declines, for an indefinite period, to hold any court there.

The matters above stated are the reasons for holding Jeff. Davis in confinement, and why he has not been put upon his trial.

The Attorney General at about the same time expressed himself against the doctrine of constructive presence, giving the opinion that Jeff Davis and others of the insurgents ought to be tried in some of the districts in which they in person respectively committed the crimes with which they may be charged. None of the Judges of the Supreme Court have held Circuit Courts in of these States and districts since actual hostilities ceased, and, he adds, when the courts are held and the laws can be peacefully administered and enforced in those States whose people rebelled against the government, when thus peace shall have come in fact and in law, persons now held in military custody as prisoners of war, and who may not have been tried and convicted of an offence against the laws of war, should be transferred into the custody of civil authorities of the proper districts, to be tried for such high crimes and misdemeanors as may be alleged against them. I think it is the plain duty of the President to cause criminal prosecutions to be instituted before the proper tribunals, and at the proper times against some of those who were mainly instrumental in inaugurating and most conspicuous in conducting the late hostilities.

WASHINGTON, April 10.

The Secretary of the Treasury has issued a circular classing crude petroleum, naptha, benzine and benzoin among explosives. No steamers carrying passengers, will be allowed to transport either, without special license.

An order granting pardon to 13 Louisianans, 1 South Carolinian, and 1 Alabamian—all under the $20,000 clause—has been issued.

The Superintendent of the Freedmen's Bureau at the Sea Islands reports that the number of contracts made by him, or military authorities, on Edisto, Wadmalaw, John's and James' Islands, South Carolina, during March, was 55, including 2888 freed people. Many contracts have been made that were not reported in season. No freedmen or women need now be idle because of scarcity of employment. There is plenty to do, and owing to the want of laborers in the South and Southwest, the planters are paying very liberal wages.

Speaker Colfax was serenaded to-night at his residence by citizens of Indiana, who had already been paying like compliment to Senator Lane of that State. Mr. Colfax acknowledged the compliment, and responded in a speech.

WASHINGTON, April 10.

Applications are now pending for the pardon of 86 ex-members of the rebel congress, 132 graduates of West Point who served in the rebel army, 127 rebel generals, including Bragg, Longstreet, Beauregard and several of the Lees; also, 32 prominent rebel officials and 116 ex-U S officers who held positions in the rebel army.

MOBILE, April 10.

The anniversary celebration of the fire department occurred yesterday. After the oration, the members of the department, the authorities and a few invited guests partook of a collation. Among the toasts were the following:

"The President of the United States—the fearless patriot, the friend of those who support his policy, the enemy of those who oppose it."

This was responded to by Major Withers, who paid a lofty and eloquent tribute to the patriotism and statesmanship of the people's President, Andrew Johnson, and thanked God that such a man now occupied that position.

Major Watchuh being called on for a sentiment, said:

"I rise, Mr Chairman, to propose a sentiment, which I think should not be omitted on any occasion of this kind. I mean no treason; nor do I mean to revive any memories of the past, which ought to be dead and buried. I simply offer the health of a distinguished gentleman. I give you, therefore, Sir, Jefferson Davis—Soldier, statesman, patriot, prisoner. Our tongues may be mute, but our hearts are with him!"

PORTLAND, April 10.

The steamship Belgian, from Liverpool March 29, and Londonderry 30, arrived this morning.

The political news from England is quite important.

The apprehension of trouble in Germany, and the Fenian agitation in America, continued to depress the funds, and it is remarked that consols on the 28th, touched a lower price than has been known since the commercial crisis of 1857.

FRANCE.

A third sitting of the conference on the Danubian Principalities was held on the 28th.

The Bourse was flat at 68f 30c.

AUSTRIA AND PRUSSIA.

The Prussian and German journals continue to discuss with keen interest the probabilities of a war between Austria and Prussia.

Nothing has transpired to throw any light upon the eventual issue of the quarrel.

The London Morning Post of the 29th, says the position of affairs becomes every day more critical.

In Berlin the language of the press, by the government, is warlike, and great military preparations are being made everywhere throughout the kingdom.

In Austria the government is also taking measures in anticipation of the approaching struggle.

Prussia had forwarded a circular despatch to the minor German States, laying stress upon the insufficiency of an appeal to the Federal Diet to settle the present conflict.—The despatch further points out the necessity of various States taking up a definite position, one side or the other, in the struggle which the armaments of Austria seem to render more and more imminent. The note accuses Austria of having violated the conditions of the Gastien Convention, and assumed a threatening attitude.

It expresses doubts as to the power of the Confederate States to carry out their good intentions towards Prussia in the relative state of the federal military organization, and points out the necessity which has arisen for introducing a reform in the present system, and the despatch concludes as follows:

It is urgent for Prussia to know if, and to what extent, she may rely upon assistance, in case she should be attacked by Austria or forced into war by unmistakable measures.

The Berlin journals represent the Austrian armaments and preparations as very extensive; and some of them admit, that in view of Austrian preparations, orders may have been given by Prussia to take such military measures as may be indispensable.

SPAIN.

A motion proposing a reduction of the army was thrown out in Congress by 157 to 35 votes.

In consequence of this decision, Senors Kiosprosas and Silvela, and some other members of Congress who abstained from voting, tendered their resignations.

TORONTO, April 10.

Further arrests are being made here of parties implicated in Fenian movements.—Searches are being made and the authorities are acting with the utmost promptness.

NEW YORK, April 10.

The Commercial says—

The stock market is weak. Apprehensions of cholera is saddled with the chief responsibility for the change in the tone of the market, but the real cause appears from the fact that short interest has been largely reduced.

The railroad list is lower, except Reading, Rock Island and Western.

Governments quiet. Private advices from London quote 5-20's at 69¾@70.

Gold unsettled, though upon the whole it is firmer. The probability of returning 5-20's has strengthened the premium.

The short interest appears moderate and price opened at 27½.

Thirty-Ninth Congress.

FIRST SESSION.

WASHINGTON, April 10, 1866.

Senate.

A resolution was adopted that the Secretary of the Senate present to the Secretary of State an attested copy of the civil rights bill as passed by a two thirds vote of both Houses.

The postoffice committee reported the bill to amend the postal laws, which decreases the fine for defacing or injuring mail matter or letter or pillar boxes, from $1000 to $500, as a substitute for the Senate bill.

The bill making a grant of land to aid in the construction of the Southern Minnesota Railroad passed.

The use of the Senate Chamber was granted to —— McWalling to deliver a lecture on the condition of the South, on the evening of the 17th.

The Senate then went into executive session.

Adjourned.

House.

On motion of Mr. Dawes the Secretary of War was directed to furnish the House with the findings of the commission in the case of awards for the captors of Booth and Harold.

A resolution from the committee on foreign affairs was adopted, requesting the President to inform the House what steps had been taken to protect the rights and interests of American citizens on the fishing grounds adjacent to the British Provinces, and whether any legislation or other action by Congress is necessary to secure those rights and interests.

The Speaker presented a message from the President, transmitting a communication from the Secretary of War, with accompanying papers, in relation to the grants of land in 1850—53—54, to the States of Mississippi, Alabama, Florida and Louisiana, to aid in the construction of certain railroads. These acts would expire by limitation Aug. 11, 1866, leaving the roads for whose benefit they were conferred, in an unfinished condition. The President recommends that the time within which they must be completed be extended five years.

The final vote on the passage of the bankrupt bill was 70 to 73—so the bill was rejected.

Mr Conkling then introduced the same bill with some modification. Referred to select committee on bankrupt law.

The joint resolution relative to the burial of soldiers was passed.

The joint resolution relative to bounties to colored soldiers was referred to the committee on military affairs.

The bill providing for the codification of the laws was referred to the judiciary committee.

A bill was passed authorizing the coin age of five cent pieces of copper and nickel.

Adjourned.

LANDSCAPE PHOTOGRAPHS. It will seen by advertisement that Sawyer is now prepared to take those fine views of private mansions and grounds, public buildings or landscapes of any description, in which he has been so successful. The next few weeks is the time when they can be taken to best advantage—as the foliage is afterwards too dense to allow accurate and full representations of buildings.

—There was no good or proper reason for the alarm of fire yesterday afternoon, so far as we could ascertain.

—A correspondent at Oldtown says that the Dramatic Club at that place made its second appearance last week, and gave a very satisfactory entertainment to an audience composed of the most intelligent people of that place.

BUSINESS CHANGE. Mr. Ambrose Warren has recently sold his stock of botanic and other medicines, and his stand, corner of State Street and East Market Square, to Mr. B. F. Bradbury, who has made improvements in the store, and will re-open it as a general drug store, at which not only the botanic but other kinds of medicines may be found, in addition to the other classes of goods usually found in such establishments. He has also purchased the right to make and sell the famous "Warren's Cough Balsam!" Mr. Warren, we believe, intends to remove from the city.

To the Editor of the Whig:

Thanking you for your courtesy in explaining my remarks at the Johnson meeting, allow me to state just what I did state, which was "that the Civil Rights Bill, which our Republican friends celebrate the passage of over the President's veto, may be constitutional. If it is decided by the Supreme Court to be so, and the President declines to execute it, I would not support him," and, allow me to add, I would do all in my power to oppose him.

GEO. W. LADD.

CONCERT. It will be seen by advertisement that the Choir of the Universalist Society, assisted by Mr. F. S. Davenport, their accomplished organist, will give a Concert of miscellaneous music at the Church on Fast Day (to-morrow) evening. The proceeds will be devoted to the benefit of the society.

COMPLIMENTARY. We understand that a Complimentary Dance is to be given to Mr. J. G. S. Kimball, Pianist, at Spencer's Hall, this evening. His friends will undoubtedly respond, and assure a good time.

OIL AT BOTHWELL. The past winter crude petroleum at Bothwell has been down to $4.50 per barrel. It has now gone up to $6.00, and is steadily advancing.

JUVENILE EXHIBITION BALL. The juvenile pupils connected with the Dancing Academy of A. L. Spencer are, we learn, to give an exhibition at Norombega Hall, Tuesday evening, 17th inst. This will be the first exhibition of the kind under the instruction of Mr. Spencer ever given here and will doubtless be one of interest and pleasure to all who may attend.

UNION STATE COMMITTEE. A meeting of this Committee was held on Friday, at Augusta, and it was organized by the election of Hon. James G. Blaine as Chairman and Edward Stanwood, Esq., Secretary.

It was decided to hold the Union Republican State Convention, for the purpose of nominating a candidate for Governor, at Bangor, on Thursday, June 21.

—One hundred guns were fired in Portland, Saturday noon, and the Stars and Stripes were hoisted on the City Government Building, in commemoration of the passage of the Civil Rights Bill in the Senate.

—The Portland Star says that the bricklayers of that city have voted that wages be $3 per day until the 1st of December, and at the same proportion per hour during the winter months.

—The Portland Advertiser says it is proposed by the Baptists of this State to have a Ministers' Institute, to be held at Saco at the time of the State Convention, the Institute to commence Thursday and hold to the next Tuesday. If the measure is consummated, there will be five lectures on Theology, two on Evidences, two on Exegesis, one on Pastoral Duties, and two on Elocution.

—Eleven persons were baptised by immersion yesterday at the Free Street Baptist Church, and three in Back Bay by the pastor of the Second Advent Church.—[Portland Star.

—The Ellsworth American expresses the hope that the Maine politicians will not find it necessary to rush to Washington this summer to learn who the President wants nominated and elected Governor of this State.

DELAYS ARE DANGEROUS. The Portland Advertiser says that a mammoth train of 300 cars on the Grand Trunk road, was on the Canada side of the line on the evening of the 17th ult., the day of the expiration of the reciprocity treaty, which cars were to be run into the States before midnight; but the axle of the forward engine breaking, the train was delayed and dutiable to the snug sum of $15,000, for which it is now held at Island Pond. Rumor says there was sufficient time in which to cross the line, but that the conductor chose to wait for the last moment, in order to give eclat to his transit, and by so doing came to grief.

—Rev. Amos D. Wheeler, D. D., of Topsham has been appointed by the Unitarian Conference to labor as a missionary in this State.

MAINE SOLDIERS IN SERVICE. There are now in round numbers says the Lewiston Journal, 1,800 Maine troops yet in the U. S. service, as follows: 29th regiment infantry veteran volunteers, Darlington, S. C.; 15th regiment infantry, Chesterville, S. C.; battalion 12th Maine volunteers, (four companies) Savannah, Ga.; 1st battalion infantry, Anderson Court House, Va. The term of service of the latter expires the first week of next month; the service of the remainder does not expire until the last part of next December.

—Building operations in the burnt district in this city have been recommenced during the past week with great vigor. About twenty five brick stores are now in process of erection, and others are in contemplation during the summer.—[Augusta Journal.

—An American writes from Hong Kong: "People at home have but a faint conception of the immensity of the Asiatic commerce. It is not unusual to have ships come into port with a cargo of opium worth a million of dollars. Single invoices of $50,000 and $100,000 worth of silk are among daily transactions."

—A man was garroted in St. Louis recently and robbed a jack knife and two copper cents. Adding insult to injury, the thieves kicked him on account of his poverty.

A Good Life.

Should our necrology be confined to men alone whom some special gift or service has invested with a certain amount of fame?—The contemplation of distinguished lives is not always elevating or encouraging to the great mass of undistinguished men, but we can never be too often presented with the record of honesty that never swerves, of simple duties always faithfully performed, of steadfast principles that never excluded charity, and of Christian love that never grew cold. These qualities always centered in the peaceful, completed and harmonious life upon which I desire to lay one leaf of remembrance.

On the 6th of March, upon his farm, near Kennett Square, Pennsylvania, John Agnew died. On the 10th he was buried in the cemetery at Longwood, beside a beloved son and daughter. He was a simple farmer and knew no other world, but that of the quiet community in which the 72½ years of his life were spent. In that world, however, he was a permanent moral power. Never asserting himself, always shrinking from prominence above his neighbors in any form, few could guess the full influence of his quiet example, the wide, warm atmosphere of his tender humanity, until he was suddenly called away from among them.—With good intellectual powers, and a fresh, active, inquiring spirit, which kept pace with all the moral and political development of his time, his distinctive qualities were, nevertheless, his natural rectitude, and unconscious goodness. He never professed a virtue, but was it.

One of the very first to join the anti-slavery movement in the day of Benjamin Lundy, and unshaken in his adherence during the time of trial, no bitterness toward even its fiercest enemies ever alloyed his principle. One of the very first, also, to enlist in the cause of sentiment, neither joining in the outcry against individuals who stood aloof from the movement, nor expressing a severer feeling than pity for the excesses it endeavored to heal. The too common fault of professed reformers—that of charging a moral delinquency upon those who do not accept their views—was never his. The sense of his human brotherhood was too simple, pure and modest, to claim any moral ascendency over his fellow men. He was not rich enough to give a great deal of money, but he gave, on every side, help, counsel, encouragement. No man ever doubted his word, no man ever wished him an injury.

During the most stringent rule of the Fugitive Slave law, he never failed to speed the escaping slave on his Northward way. Yet, while staunchly demanding both Liberty and Right for the Colored Race, he avoided that other fault of overlooking their present imperfect development, and flattering them with hopes of social equality.—By them he was universally mourned. They came from long distances to look upon his remains, and it would have given an added happiness to his last days to have known how many of them sorrowed beside his grave.

The contemplation of such a life refreshes our faith in the natural elements of Good in Man. His sphere was limited and secluded, but he filled it completely, nobly, and with a light that shall linger long behind. He was ambitious only to be true; he was proud only to be beloved. Therein he found the secret of perpetual youth.—During the thirty years, from early childhood up, that I have known him, he never grew a day older in heart or brain. He bore sorrows with sweet resignation, troubles with serene patience, and took the simplest joy as a special bounty. Hence his life was happy as it was good, and grief for his death is almost taken away because it so beautifully rounded a beautiful existence.

March 20, 1866. BAYARD TAYLOR.

AN ILLINOIS LAWYER "DOING WELL." There were few abler lawyers in the State of Illinois during the past quarter of a century than the late Judge Purple of Peoria.—He was the author of several important law books. By his entire devotion to his profession, he attained merited celebrity as an advocate and jurist.

Some years since Judge P., when in the city of Washington, met a gentleman from Boston, who, upon learning that the Judge was from Illinois, made particular inquiry as to the success of a young sprig of the law by the name of B——, who had emigrated West some five years before.

'He is doing very well,' very promptly replied the Judge.

'He is? Well, I am glad to hear it—glad to hear it, indeed.

'You think he has a good practice,' do you, Judge?'

'Don't know anything about his practice,' replied Purple; 'but he is doing well succeeding finely.'

'Making money, then, is he?' persisted Boston.

'I tell you I don't know anything about his business,' said Purple.

'Well,' said the Boston man, 'you seem to think he is doing well, and yet you know nothing about his practice or business—What do you mean?'

'I mean this,' said Purple, 'that any man who practices law in Illinois five years, and who keeps out of the Penitentiary, is doing well, whether he has practice or not!'

THE DIAMOND. Once a man, travelling in South America, in crossing the dry bed of a stream, saw a sparkling object down among the pebbles. He stooped and picked it up. It was a diamond of great value—merchant bought it; a lapidary worked it with immense labor and art and carefulness, and afterwards it glistened on the person of royalty in the most brilliant courts in the world. As high as five hundred thousand dollars, we are told, has been paid for a single diamond. Diamonds are set in the crowns of kings, and are worn by queens as their most valued ornaments.

Well, to-day, as I was walking, I came upon a precious stone. One would have not thought it, though, for it was altogether unwrought, without form, and had no beauty, no splendor yet; and, besides, it was encased in a most unprepossessing covering of gross matter. But stop; examine it closely, look down through those two eyes. There is a soul behind them somewhere—a jewel worth more than all Golconda ever was.—Ohio, now for the instrument to reach it, to bring it to light, to cut and polish it, then, oh, what a brilliant it would be!

Just to secure this one precious stone would be worth a whole lifetime's labor; for its value cannot be told. The world and all the stars could not buy it. Oh, if I could but secure it, then would I bye and bye, when the Lord makes up his jewels, see it placed by his own hand in his own diadem, there to shine more brightly, on and on for ever and ever.

How then can we secure this diamond?

One of the counties of the State of Connecticut, boasts of a Judge who, though poorly furnished with those little refinements usually met with in polished society, is an energetic, shrewd man, and a promising lawyer. A neighbor of his some weeks ago was about to give away his daughter in marriage, and having a deep-rooted dislike to the clerical profession, and being determined, as he said, to have no infernal parson in his house, he sent for his friend, the Judge, to perform the ceremony. The Judge came, and the candidates for the connubial yoke taking their places before him, he thus addressed the bride: 'You swear you will marry this man?' 'Yes sir,' was the reply. 'And you (to the bridegroom) swear that you will marry this woman?'—'Well, I do,' said the groom. Then, said the Judge, 'I sworn you're married!'

A COWARDLY PRIEST. A Spanish priest once exhorting the soldiers to fight like lions added, in the ardor of his enthusiasm, "Reflect, my brethren, that whomsoever falls to-day sups to-night in Paradise."

Thunders of applause followed the sentiment. The fight began, the ranks wavered, the priest took to his heels, when a soldier, stopping him, reproachfully referred to the promised supper in Paradise.

'True, my son,' said the priest, 'but I never eat soppers.

Patent Metallic Sole.

A NEW INVENTION.

WETTING THE FEET is the most prolific cause of disease and death known to humanity. It is almost sure to bring on a cold; and colds, neglected, and often when not neglected, lead to fevers or to coughs and fatal consumptions. It is in recognition of this truth that the inventive talent of the country has for years been devising some method, or attempting to devise it, for keeping the feet dry, and yet that should not give inconvenience to the wearer. Rubber shoes, in one form or another, have hitherto been our reliance; but it is well known, as among their many evils, that while they keep the feet dry from external moisture, they sweat them overmuch, and by thus inducing an undue tenderness increase a susceptibility to colds rather than otherwise.—They are also cumbersome to the feet, and withal are very expensive. The demand is for something that shall make the ordinary Boot and Shoe impervious to water without effecting their elegance or durability, and, if possible, without adding sensibly to the cost of manufacture. These, it will be conceded, are most important features, and we conscientiously affirm that they are absolutely attained in the invention herewith presented to the public.

The invention consists in inserting between the inner and outer sole, when the boot is making, a thin METALLIC PLATE, exceedingly ductile, combining flexibility with toughness, very light, and every way adapted to the end desired, while the additional expense is merely nominal. It furnishes a perfect barrier against the admission of wet or dampness, though the feet may be exposed over so long upon wet pavements or damp ground.

To ladies and children the METALLIC SOLES will be of inestimable value, as from their habits of life and delicacy of frame, they are particularly exposed to the long train of ills that attend upon an inadequate protection to the feet.

These Soles have already been tried by the best of all tests, ACTUAL USE, and the testimonials to their merits, freely proffered, indicate that they must be speedily and universally adopted by the public. The Patent Metallic Soled Boots and Shoes are being introduced into the leading Boot and Shoe Stores throughout the United States, and will supplant all forms of overshoes, except possibly for deep mud and snow, as they become known. Be sure to get them and no other. If your shoemaker does not happen to have them, he can procure them without difficulty. If he will not, then send yourself to the inventor one dollar and thirty cents, and obtain six pair, assorted sizes, with right to use, which will be promptly forwarded, by mail or express, post-paid, and which can be made up by any shoemaker in the country. Agencies will be established in every city and village, and supplied with Soles and proprietary stamps, at schedule prices, and liberal commission allowed on sales. Also General Agencies for States appointed on application, with proper testimonials to the inventor.

Samuel J. Seely,

TESTIMONIALS.

The undersigned have for the past six months worn Boots and Shoes possessing Mr. Seely's METALLIC SOLE, and find them to be an effectual preventive against dampness, and the colds so often taken from damp feet, most readily do we testify to the perfect efficiency of their service. The Metallic Sole is not only a grand contribution to the cause of general health, but a positive luxury, obviating all necessity of India Rubber shoes, except in muddy weather. All ordinary dampness, and even water upon pavements, is completely foiled of its power of harm by this most simple and useful invention. No one who has once used them will ever be without them again, as they increase the cost of boots and shoes by a sum which is scarcely worth naming, and insure, positively, dry feet, which is reckoned among the first conditions of health and comfort. We heartily commend the "Metallic Sole" to all the sensible.

J. CLEMENT FRENCH,
Pastor Central Cong. Church, Brooklyn.
MARY A. FRENCH.
NEW YORK, Dec. 1865.

SAMUEL J. SEELY, Esq.:

Dear Sir—In reply to your inquiries regarding your Patent Metallic Sole, I take great pleasure in stating that I had them in a pair of fine calf skin boots, which I wore the whole of last winter in the wet streets of Albany. I have had them half soled since, and am wearing your Metallic Sole now, with full intention never to be without them. I have not had a wet or damp foot during the whole time I have worn them. I pronounce them the best insole yet made. I am satisfied that no person having once worn them will do without them.—Wishing you the success you deserve for so valuable an invention for the preservation of health,

I remain truly yours,
SAMUEL JEFFERSON,
Contractor, New York.

MR. SAMUEL J. SEELY:

Dear Sir—I take great pleasure in offering my testimony to the usefulness and comfort of your patent Metallic Sole. I have used a pair of boots for the past seven months, furnished with this Sole, and feel no hesitation in saying that I have never worn shoes that combined so perfectly the desirable qualities of dryness and durability.

EMMA OVERTON, Brooklyn, New York.

S. J. SEELY, Esq.:

Dear Sir—In answer to your request, I am pleased to state that I have manufactured shoes containing your Metallic Sole by machinery. I think them a superior article for keeping the feet dry. In manufacturing them there is no trouble in cutting the thread when sewing, nor any difficulty in putting them in the shoe. Respectfully yours,

CONSTITUTION

LIFE SYRUP.

A positive and specific remedy for all diseases originating from an IMPURE STATE OF THE BLOOD, and for all (hereditary) DISEASES transmitted from PARENT TO CHILD.

L

GLANDULAR SWELLINGS,
STRUMA,
ULCERATION, KING'S EVIL,
ELYSIPELAS, SALT RHEUM.

This taint (HEREDITARY and ACQUIRED,) filling life with untold misery, is by all usual medical remedies incurable.

RHEUMATISM.

If there is any disease in which the Constitution Life Syrup is a sovereign, it is in rheumatism and its kindred affections. The most intense pains are almost instantly alleviated—enormous swellings are reduced. Cases, chronic or vicarious, of twenty or thirty years standing have been cured.

I

NERVOUSNESS.

Nervous Debility, Shattered Nerves,
St. Vitus' Dance, Loss of Power,
Confusion of Thoughts, Epilepsy.

Thousands who have suffered for years will bless the day on which they read these lines. Particularly to weak, suffering women will this medicine prove an inestimable blessing—directing their footsteps to a Hope which fulfills more than in promise.

MERCURIAL DISEASES.

Salivation, Rotting of Bones,
Bad Complexion, Aches in Bones,
Feeling of Weakness, Depression of Spirits.

F

CONSTITUTION LIFE SYRUP purges the system entirely from all the evil effects of MERCURY, removing the Bad Breath, curing the Weak Joints and Rheumatic Pains which the use of Calomel is sure to produce. It hardens Spongy Gums and secures the Teeth as firmly as ever.

CONSTITUTION LIFE SYRUP

and all other difficulties of this kind, which so much disfigure the outward appearance of both males and females, often making them a disgusting object to themselves and their friends.

E

CURES ALL SWELLING OF THE GLANDS.

Either of the Face, Neck or Female Breast, and should be taken as soon as the swelling is detected, thus preventing their breaking, and producing troublesome Discharging Sores, which disfigure so many of the younger portion of the community, from six to twenty years of age. Young children are very subject to Discharges from the Ears, which depends upon a Scrofulous constitution. These cases soon recover by taking a few doses of the Life Syrup.

S

All scrofulous persons suffering from general Debility, Emaciation, Dyspepsia and Dropsey of the limbs, abdomen, and in the female, Dropsey of the ovaries and womb, generally accompanied with inflammation and Ulceration of the Uterus, are permanently cured by Constitution Life Syrup. The disease known as Goitre or Swelled Neck, the Life Syrup will remove entirely. The remedy should be taken for some time, as the disease is exceedingly chronic and stubborn, and will not be removed without extra effort.

Tumors of the Ovaries, Tumors of the Breast, and swelling of other glands of the body, will be completely reduced without resorting to the knife, or operations of any kind.

Y

Epileptic Fits, Sympathetic or Organic Diseases of the Heart, or palpitation. Disease of the Valves, producing a grating or filing sound, Dropsey of the Heart Case and all the affections of this important organ (persons suffering from any acute pain in the region of the heart), will be greatly relieved by Constitution Life Syrup.

BROKEN DOWN AND DELICATE CONSTITUTIONS SUFFERING FROM INDISPOSITION TO EXERTION, PAIN IN THE BACK, LOSS OF MEMORY, FOREBODINGS, HORROR OF CALAMITY, FEAR OF DISEASE, DIMNESS OF VISION, DRY, HOT SKIN AND EXTREMITIES, WANT OF SLEEP, RESTLESSNESS, PALE, HAGGARD COUNTENANCE, AND LASSITUDE OF THE MUSCULAR SYSTEM, all require the aid of the CONSTITUTION LIFE SYRUP.

R

FOR ALL FORMS OF

Ulcerative Diseases,

Either of the NOSE, THROAT, TONGUE, SPINE, FOREHEAD or SCALP, no remedy has ever proved its equal.

MOTH PATCHES upon the female face depending upon the diseased action of the liver, are very unpleasant to the young wife and mother. A few bottles of CONSTITUTION LIFE SYRUP, will correct the secretion, and remove the deposit which is directly under the skin.

In the diseases of the Liver, giving rise to Langour, Dizziness, Indigestion, Weak Stomach, or an ulcerated or cancerous condition of that organ, accompanied with burning or other unpleasant symptoms, will be relieved by the use of CONSTITUTION LIFE SYRUP.

For the Speedy and Permanent Cure of Liver Complaints, Scrofula or King's Evil, Eruptions, and all Eruptive Diseases of the Skin, St. Anthony's Fire, Salt Rheum, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches and Boils; Rheumatic and Neuralgic Pains in the Bones, Side and Head; for the various Weaknesses to which Females are liable; Dyspepsia, Debility, Emaciation, Dropsy, and all diseases resulting from or in an impure state of the Blood.

IT is invaluable to Nervous Sufferers, and a positive cure for Palsy arising from the abuse of Mercury or Lead.

It is a Tonic as well as an Alterative, and a sure protection from attacks that originate in change of climate, season or life.

LIVER COMPLAINTS and their combined symptoms, such as Lumbago, Jaundice, Rheumatism, Bilious Eruptions, &c. When caused by Scrofula taint, this compound is a most effectual remedy.

DYSPEPSIA or INDIGESTION, is often caused by Scrofula, which deranges the stomach, and renders it unhealthy. Indigestion is not always caused by Scrofula, when it is, this Sarsaparilla Compound is a ready cure.

NEURALGIA, HEADACHE and various disorders of the nervous system frequently arise from a low state of the constitutional health, and are much relieved and often cured by this powerful remedy.

ERYSIPELAS, Boils, Tumors, or Salt Rheum, Ulcers, Sores, &c. Moderate doses three times a day will usually effect the cure of the above complaints, but often requires considerable time.

Oriental Hair Restorer.

After a long series of experiments this article, as it is now offered to the public, is believed to be the most perfect of its kind which science has ever devised. No pains have been spared to produce what has so long been demanded by thousands, who, from sickness or other causes, have become prematurely grey; and others, who, in the sere and yellow blance of youth, DR. KNIGHTS' ORIENTAL HAIR RESTORER, after a few applications, restores grey or faded hair to its original color, and is the only preparation of the kind upon which the public can place any reliance. It has never been known to fail in a single instance, and is totally unlike the thousand and one so-called Hair Restorers, by which so many have been egregiously deceived.

It is delightfully perfumed, gives the hair a rich and glossy appearance, promotes its luxuriant growth, and will not soil the skin, scalp, or any article of apparel.
